

Brigham Society

The most generally appreciated event of the summer was the band concert given at the court house Sunday afternoon. It was a treat to have band music again and not only did the Brigham people enjoy it but not a few cars of tourists stopped to listen.

Saturday evening Miss Muriel Horsey was hostess to a few friends at a canyon supper. The party motored to Willowmere where lunch was enjoyed around a large bonfire. On returning from the canyon, dancing was enjoyed at the academy of music.

Mrs. W. Leroy Smith was hostess at a dinner party Sunday for out of town guests. Garden flowers formed the centerpiece. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Irvine of Logan, Mrs. William Smith of Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts of Salt Lake City, Mrs. J. C. Hayward of Logan, Dr. and Mrs. Smith.

Saturday evening the officers and teachers of the Third Ward Mutual met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Sorenson on West Forest street. Following the regular business affairs of the meeting a watermelon bust was enjoyed on the lawn. There were fourteen present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fishburn had as guests over the week end, Mrs. Elizabeth Mack of Ogden, and Misses Ruth and Beth Mack of Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Christensen and son Francis of Salt Lake, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Kottler.

Mrs. R. L. Fishburn spent last week in Ogden.

Myron Whitney of Logan spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dunn.

Dr. and Mrs. Denenberg and Miss Ruth Turner, all of Heber, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Morrison Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. August F. Jeppson, who is visiting here from Buist, Idaho, Mrs. Alice Forsgren and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wright spent the week end in Salt Lake.

F. C. Hultquist has returned from Central, Wash., where he and Mrs. Hultquist have been for several weeks. Mrs. Hultquist will remain longer with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagstaff and Mrs. Lizzie Bingham were royally entertained at the Bonneville ranch two days last week. They were the guests of Mrs. H. C. Day and Mrs. Genetha Minogoe.

Mrs. Marguerite Davis and Misses Julia and Margaret Hubbard of Willard spent Friday in Logan.

Mrs. H. C. Day and children and Miss Genetha Minogoe motored to Salt Lake Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tiller and family returned Thursday evening from Lost River where they made an extended trip fishing and hunting.

Mrs. Shirley C. Horsley spent Friday and Saturday in Salt Lake visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Irma Murdoch, former supervisor of the Brigham Cill play grounds, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Madsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Jacobsen of Deer Lodge, Mont., and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jacobsen of Idaho, were in Brigham Thursday to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Annie M. Johnson.

Willis Morgan spent Friday in Salt Lake on business.

K. A. Lowry and daughter Ruth of Salt Lake spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Jensen.

C. H. Gillis of Ogden, and Miss Della Smithwhite of Oregon, who have been the guests at the West home, and Miss Mattie West left this morning for Ogden where they attended an Elks' party at the Hermitage, Ogden canyon, and returned to Brigham Thursday.

The Misses Doris and Mildred Emmet and Miss Ruby Williams of Salt Lake, and Miss Sadie Eccles of Ogden, were the guests of Misses Rae and Opal Knudson Saturday evening.

Miss Beesle Morrison came up from Heber to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Morrison.

J. C. Knudson was a Salt Lake visitor Saturday.

Miss Celia Bott, supervisor of the Brigham play grounds, is busy every day now rehearsing sixty children in the little play, "Hansel and Gretel," which will be staged the early part of September.

Mrs. O. B. Jensen of Soda Springs has moved to Brigham where she will be at home to her friends in the future.

Miss Mildred Taylor and Miss Alice Koford left Friday for Smithfield where they will visit a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and children from Blackfoot, are visiting a few days here with Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Thea Watkins.

Glen Jensen was here Saturday and Sunday from Preston, Idaho.

Shirley Horsley and Bevard Nichols spent the week end on the Nicholas ranch in Paradise Creek canyon, hunting and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Abramson, Mrs. D. B. Baron and Julius Strauss have returned from their tour of Yellowstone park.

Miss Florence Knudson spent Saturday in Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Tingey are delighted over the arrival of a fine baby girl born Friday morning.

Abel S. Rich is home from Promontory where he has been the past four weeks, and is already busy on the preparation of opening the seminary for the coming school year.

Miss Sylvia Peterson has as her house guest, Miss Edith Evans of Salt Lake City.

On September 11, the Beehive girls of the Boxelder stake, will stage the Beehive pageant called "The Day of the Swarm," on the lawns surrounding the library.

Miss Adelle Grabel of Salt Lake City spent the week end here the guest of Miss Alice Reeder.

Mrs. Hazel S. Jensen and son are here from Salt Lake City to spend several days with relatives and friends.

Miss Mamie Halverson and Mrs. Orlando Peterson are visiting friends and relatives in Provo.

Mr. H. R. Doremus returned to Brigham Wednesday evening after spending a few days at Tremonton.

Mrs. Mrs. Clifford Pierce returned Tuesday evening from a trip in Idaho. Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Muir, accompanied the Pierses on their trip and returned to their home in Heber, Wednesday.

Mrs. J. C. Hayward and baby returned to Logan after a visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Smith.

Mr. S. D. Sandusky arrived in Brigham Wednesday from Roseville, Cal., to spend some time visiting friends.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Smith have as their guests Mrs. J. Schultz and daughter, Lovell, of Driggs, Ida.

Mrs. A. W. Compton and Mrs. John Forsgren, representatives of the Central camp of the Daughters of the Pioneers, motored to Bear River City Wednesday to be in attendance at the reorganizing meeting of the Bear River camp of the pioneers. After the meeting a delightful hour was spent in social entertainment and refreshments were served.

The ladies of the Social Development club entertained at a lawn party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jensen. The lawn was attractively decorated in the morning and appropriate games were played during the evening. At a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Wright, Orion Jensen, Emory Reese, Floyd Knudson, Ira Larson, Norman Jensen, Carl Hansen, Sterling Madsen, Milton Jensen, Noble Fishburn, Frank Earl, Henry Frogly, Warren Knudson, Wilford Anderson and Clifford Jensen.

The members of the Relief society of Mantua held their annual social in honor of the organization of the Relief society in that community Tuesday afternoon. Part of the time was spent in the regular meeting and following a tray luncheon was served to seventy present. The following stake board members were in attendance: Mesdames Nels Jensen, Rae Evans, Ella Valentine, T. H. Blackburn, Charles White and George Nicholas.

Mrs. Francis D. Farrell of Manhattan, Kan., Mrs. Ray P. Stratford of Pocatello, and Mrs. William J. Lowe were luncheon guests of Mrs. W. A. Call Thursday.

Wednesday evening the Beehive girls of the First ward entertained at a delightful party in the First ward amusement hall in honor of their teachers, who have worked with the Beehive girls for the past year. Games and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour and a tray luncheon was served. The honored guests were

The engagement of Miss Ida Holley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Holley, to John F. Scowcroft was announced at a luncheon given by her mother last week at the Country club. The luncheon was regarded as one of the leading social events of the week.

Misses Ada Johnson, Arilla Holst, Nellie Jensen; Mrs. John Forsgren, Mrs. Eldred Hatch and Mrs. Esther Clough.

Mrs. W. Leroy Smith was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a daintily appointed luncheon in honor of Mrs. J. C. Hayward of Logan. A yellow color scheme was carried out in the decorations. A crystal basket of black and white dainties, place cards and tiny yellow nut baskets were arranged at each place. The guests present were: Mrs. J. C. Hayward, Mrs. George Fisher, Mrs. Eustace K. Harmon, Mrs. Shirley C. Horsley, Mrs. Orville Merrill, Hope Fishburn, Nadine Dunn, Florence Knudson and Mrs. Smith.

Dr. E. G. Titus, accompanied by Mr. D. O. Woodruff left Friday for Sugar City, Idaho, to interview the farmers in that locality in spraying their beets.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ben Call, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Valentine, Mr. H. N. Valentine and Mr. C. W. Knudson, motored to Salt Lake to attend the Republican convention.

The Civic Improvement club held their first meeting since the summer vacation yesterday afternoon at the Commercial clubrooms. The day's program consisted of the report of the investigation of the constitution by Mrs. Wynn L. Eddy, discussion of the lighting of the tabernacle park. A motion was made to set aside a fund of $350, together with the club's Liberty bonds, which amount to $150, for purchasing lights and standards for the park. Mr. Glendon Watkins, accompanied by Elva Blackburn, entertained the club with several songs. Plans were begun for a social outing to take place some time in September. The names of Mrs. O. E. Merrill and Mrs. Leroy H. Shelby were presented and voted on as members. Guests at the afternoon were Mrs. F. D. Farrell, Miss Elva Blackburn and Glendon Watkins. Refreshments were served to twenty-four present by the following committee: Mrs. Shirley C. Horsley, Mrs. George Fisher, Mrs. J. C. Knudson and Mrs. W. A. Holst.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Virginia Forsgren to Leland L. Larsen of this city. The wedding will take place sometime in September.

Wednesday evening a jolly watermelon party was enjoyed at the home of Ernest Jensen at Mantua by the following: Alta Larson, Stella Semer, Percy Jensen, Ronald Jeppson, Lavin Johnson and Ernest Jensen.

Miss Jennie Peterson entertained the children of her Sunday school class yesterday afternoon at her home on South Fourth East street. The little tots enjoyed the time playing games and singing. Watermelon, ice cream and cake were served. There were forty-five present.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Jensen had as their guests, Mrs. President and Mrs. William M. Jardine of the Kansas state agricultural college, President and Mrs. E. G. Peterson of the Utah state agricultural college and Mrs. Florence Nebeker of Ogden.

Miss Loraine Dredge will leave Saturday for a two week's visit at Preston, Ida.

Mrs. E. A. White and son, Grant, of Salt Lake will return to Salt Lake Saturday after visiting with Mrs. White's sister, Mrs. Eldred Hatch, for a week.

Miss Laura Brown spent Thursday in Ogden.

Miss Lillian Staines of Salt Lake has been the guest of Mrs. H. C. Day at the Bonneville ranch this week.

Mrs. F. D. Farrell was an Ogden visitor Friday.

Mrs. Frank J. Walker and son have returned from Twin Falls, where they spent two weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. R. L. Fishburn had as her dinner guest Friday Mrs. Anna Smith of Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. James Knudson are in Salt Lake attending the Republican convention.

Mrs. C. W. Knudson was hostess at a dinner party Sunday, in honor of out of town guests. A crystal bowl of nauturiums formed the centerpiece for the table, at which covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Woodruff, Emma Rose Woodruff, Douglas Woodruff, Kenneth Woodruff and Oscar Christensen, all of Salt Lake City; and Mr. and Mrs.

and Mrs. O. Parsons. She is a young lady of pleasing personality, and is a favorite among her host of friends. She was a student of the High school and has for many years been connected with R. L. Fishburn and Sons. Miss Parsons has been a loyal worker in the Mutuals and other church organizations.

Mr. Mortensen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marie Mortensen, who, until they moved to Salt Lake City a year or so ago, was an established family of this city. He was a High school student and a soldier in the World War, seeing eighteen months on French soil. Since leaving the service, Mr. Mortensen has been engaged with his father in the plumbing business in Salt Lake. He will take his bride to that city to make their home.

Friday evening Miss Pansy Barker of Willard entertained her friends at a delightful lawn party. During the evening, games were played and dancing was enjoyed on the lawn. At ten o'clock a dainty luncheon was served in the dining room, which was attractively decorated with garden flowers and pink crepe paper. Miss Eva Lowe and Miss Grace Jeppson assisted Miss Barker in the dining room. At a late hour, a watermelon bust was enjoyed on the lawn. Those in the afternoon were Gladys Edwards, Dot Woodruff, Constance Hubbard, Ida Birch, Eva Lowe, Dee Toombs, Veda Mason, Vera Jeppson, Grace Jeppson, Esther Lemon, Virginia Williams, Pansy Barker, LeRoy Gill, Bernard Gill, James Ward, Roy Wood, Bert Harward, William Zundel, Chester Conlin, Kenneth Nelcker and Mark Jeppson.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Laura Thompson entertained at a children's party, in honor of her son, Max's seventh birthday. The little guests enjoyed children's games, which were played on the lawn, and later in the afternoon a large birthday cake attractively decorated and illuminated with seven candles was cut and served with the refreshments.

Friday evening the Beehive Girls of three swarms of the Third ward entertained at a musical party at the home of Miss Hortense Poulsen. The lawn surrounding the house was decorated in Dutch style. The guests arrived in Dutch costumes and during the evening played Dutch games and music. At a late hour, a Dutch lunch was served. Those in charge of the party were the leaders of the three swarms, who are the Misses Rhoda Lee, Ora Lee, Bertha Vane, Hortense Poulsen, Leda Call and Mae Nelson.

The Ladies' Bury Hour club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Lucius Johnson. The time was pleasantly spent with needlework. A delicious tray luncheon was served to the following present: Mrs. Peter Johnson, Mrs. Eli Christensen, Mrs. George L. Johnson, Mrs. Chris Rasmussen, Mrs. Eugene Hillstrom, Mrs. J. S. Christensen and Mrs. J. W. Wilson.

At one o'clock Tuesday, Mrs. Afton Cheney Mason, daughter of Mrs. Ann Cheney of this city, and Mr. Kenneth Thorneck of Blounting, Ida, were married by Bishop Thomas Blackburn at the home of the bride's mother in the presence of the immediate relatives.

Mr. Thorneck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Thorneck. He was a soldier boy in the world war as was the former husband of Mrs. Thorneck. After a short motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Thorneck will return to this city to make their home.

Friday evening Mrs. J. W. Johnson and Mrs. Afton Mason entertained at a lawn party in honor of the birth-

Salt Lake Society

The Utopia club was entertained at a luncheon Tuesday by Mrs. Roy Olson at her home, 355 Third avenue. American Beauty roses in a bowl formed a centerpiece for the table. A cluny cover was over red satin.

The guests, in addition to the club members, were Mrs. A. Sorenson, Mrs. R. B. Hilderbrand, Mrs. E. L. White, the club members are Mrs. J. C. Cushman, Mrs. James Hall, Mrs. O. F. Lamb, Mrs. R. H. Seaman, Mrs. J. L. Karker, Mrs. J. C. Coad, Mrs. W. H. Cheshire, Mrs. W. E. Samuelson, Mrs. M. Bailey, Mrs. A. W. Lyon and Mrs. S. J. Cardwell.

Mrs. J. F. Hampshire and Miss Beatrice Gutter entered at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Hampshire on Browning avenue, in honor of Miss Margaret Gutter.

Mrs. David Farrell returned to Brigham Monday evening, after visiting friends in Logan for four days.

Friday evening Miss Vivian Peterson of Salt Lake City was the honored guest at a watermelon party, given by Miss Crystal and Miss Nodus Jeppson. The crowd motored to the Fish Hatchery, where the women were entertained around a large bonfire. On returning from the canyon, the guests were entertained with music and dancing on the lawn at the Jeppson home on West Forest street. The main feature of the evening was Hawaiian music, furnished by Mr. Ephraim Johnson on his guitar and ukulele and by Miss Peter's mother, whom just recently returned from missions to the Islands. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Vivian Peterson, Malco Madson, Cleofa Jeppson, Sarah Walker, Flora Watkins, Irma Murdoch, of Salt Lake, Lily Knudson, Nondus Jeppson, Crystal Jeppson, Hon. Josephson, Tracy Larson, Ephraim Johnson, Howard Reed, Wayne Jeppson, Stanley Madsen, Will Walker.

A pretty home wedding of August was that of Miss Alice Parsons and Mr. Harvey Mortenson, which took place at high noon Monday. The Parsons home on South Second street was artistically arranged with sweet peas and variegated garden flowers. The bride wore a charming frock of pale blue with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and baby breath. Her going away suit was of navy blue with hat and shoes to match. The wedding ceremony was performed by President Norman Lee in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. A wedding breakfast followed for those present and after, the young couple took an early car for Salt Lake City.

Miss Parsons is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Parsons. She is a young lady of pleasing personality, and is a favorite among her host of friends. She was a student of the High school and has for many years been connected with R. L. Fishburn and Sons. Miss Parsons has been a loyal worker in the Mutuals and other church organizations.

Dr. and Mrs. Homer C. Oatman of San Diego, Cal., have been visiting Dr. Oatman's cousin, Mrs. Minnie Letthead, on their way home from a tour of Yellowstone park.

James E. Jennings entertained at dinner at the Country club last Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for sixteen. Miss Kate Halloran entertained at luncheon Wednesday at the Country club.

Mrs. Roy Earl De Lay of Shanghai, China, a sister of E. R. Brink of this city, has been the guest of Mrs. Bertha Crabbe for a few days on her way to Denver, where she will visit with her mother, Mrs. Charles H. Brink for several months. Mrs. De Lay formerly lived in Salt Lake.

Miss Mabel Erickson entertained Wednesday night at her home on Second East street, in honor of Miss Laura Davison, a September bride. The guests numbered fourteen.

The Mizpah league gave a reception Monday evening at the Young Women's Christian association rooms. Fifty young people of the league were guests. The Rev. J. H. Williams of the First Methodist church and Miss Anna M. Davis, superintendent of the league, composed the committee on arrangements. Major and Mrs. J. Temple Berry of Columbia, Mo., and Mrs. Earl Nicholls supervised the

Announcing-

Clark's Fashion Shop

Ogden's Smartest House of Style

MR. ANDREW T. CLARK, formerly with The Leader, has recently purchased The Fashion Shop which will hereafter be known as Clark's Fashion Shop.

It is our policy, by purchasing small but frequent consignments to restrict our assortment of women's apparel to the very newest things from the fashion centers of the country.

Booths fully protect everything in the "Shop," so that their freshness and daintiness is kept. Private dressing rooms with every convenience are provided to facilitate your selection.

Just a hint to the wise—come in the morning when you can take your time and shop in comfort.

2470
Washington Ave.

CLARK'S FASHION SHOP
Women's Wear
2470 Washington Ave.

day of Mr. J. W. Johnson. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and was given at the Johnson home on South Fifth East street. Rugs and chairs were arranged on the lawn that were lighted with large electric lights. The guests enjoyed music, games, dancing and late in the evening, a delicious tray luncheon was served. The invited guests numbered forty.

Miss Eliza Hanson of Ogden is the guest of Miss Martha Evans.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Smith have as their guest Mrs. J. C. Hayward and baby of Logan.

Mrs. R. L. Fishburn and Miss Hope Fishburn were Ogden visitors Monday.

Miss Gwenivere Kottler is spending a few days in Salt Lake City.

Miss Maurine Kottler and her friend, Miss Boglevour of Logan spent the week end with H. L. Kottler. Sunday they motored to Ogden.

Field and Miss Mittelberg, who are their house guests. Other out-of-town guests were Judge and Mrs. J. M. Stevens of Pocatello and Mrs. Howard E. Peterson of Chicago.

Mrs. Sam Bernstein of 765 Richards street entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Lucile Pope.

The Joy club entertained at a miscellaneous shower Monday at the home of Miss Mae Keenan on West Second South street, in honor of Miss Annie McCormick, a fall bride. The rooms were decorated in garden flowers and kewpies. The guests numbered twenty-four.

Miss Adella Prues, whose marriage to E. W. Newman will take place soon, entertained at a trousseau tea Sunday afternoon at her home on Fourth East street. The decorations were in garden flowers. Assisting the hostess were Miss Maude Hayes, Miss Norine Hayes, Miss Angela Prues, Miss Justine Prues and Miss Pauline Martin. One hundred guests called.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary F. Fowler and William J. Corrick. The wedding took place in Ogden April 11. The bride is the daughter of John F. Fowler, 645 Fifth East street.

A prettily arranged home wedding was that of Miss La Fond Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tanner, and J. Dewey Solomon, which took place Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Third avenue. The ceremony was performed by Charles H. Wallace of the presidency of the Ensign stake. A wedding breakfast followed.

Salt Lake chapters Order of the Eastern Star will celebrate Robert Morris day August 31 at Liberty park. A special program will be carried out and a picnic supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock.

Miss Ethel Lawless and Miss Arlene Poulton entertained Friday evening in honor of Miss Le Vina Le Cheminant, a bride of early September.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ivy Devereaux of Mt. Pleasant and Harry Mace, son of James Mace of this city. The wedding took place August 18 at the home of James Mace, on Eighth West street. The ceremony was performed by John Cooper of Fillmore. Miss Bertha Mace was bridesmaid and Connie Stehn was best man.

Mrs. George Sutherland has returned from the Pacific coast and will spend ten days with her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Hempstead, 563 East Fifth street.

Miss Izzetta Funk, Miss Virginia Ebbery and Miss Gladys Greenau, Westminister college are attending the Y. W. C. A. conference of 600 students at Estes Park, Colo., as delegates from Utah.

Mrs. J. C. Lynch and daughter, Miss Dorothy Lynch, have returned from a several day's visit to the Hermitage in Ogden canyon. Mr. Lynch and Courtney Lynch joined them for the week-end. Miss Mary Lynch has returned.

(Continued on Page Three)

THE RELIABLE

WE ARE SPECIALISTS IN THE TREATMENT OF PYORRHEA

CROWN

WE ARE SPECIALISTS IN CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK

PAINLESS

We have a Specialist in Plate or False Teeth Work. If you have plates you cannot wear, see us.

DENTISTS

We have the largest office in Ogden. Our sixth year without a change of management, which makes our guarantee good.

2468 Washington Avenue, East Side

Phone 549

Sewell Norton

SOPRANO

Voice Builder Coach
(Thirteen years' experience abroad)

Voices tested Wednesdays

427 Col. Hudson Building

Satisfactory Glasses

You will find the best argument for patronizing us in the long list of customers whom we have fitted with satisfactory glasses.

A True Service We do not sell glasses as merchandise. We sell you satisfactory service. Optometry is a profession worthy the name and we practice it in all its higher branches.

Your entire satisfaction guaranteed.

J. S. LEWIS & CO.